

The Victorian Railways Institute (VRI) has been supporting the transport industry for 108 years!

The VRI has a history of serving transport employees with membership of sporting clubs, holiday accommodation and discounted retail services.

It has been part of the transport undertaking and transport culture since 1910.

Our products are continually updated and your annual membership fee can be recouped quickly as you take advantage of the services offered.

Our website shows the many offers available to members throughout Victoria.

Become a VRI member today to use great benefits!
